Security

We are dedicated to ensuring that your information is protected. In order to avoid unauthorized access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we gather online.

How we use cookies

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added, and the cookie helps analyze web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and recalling information about your preferences.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyze data about web page traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to client needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not.

A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us.

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may avert you from taking full advantage of the website.

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. Yet, once you have used these links to vacate our site, you should recognize that we do not have any control over any other website. Thus, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide while visiting such sites, and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.

Controlling your personal information

Upon request Datasmith will provide you with information about whether we hold any of your personal information. To request this information please contact us by emailing info@datasmithnetworks.com.

If you have previously agreed to us using your personal information for direct marketing purposes, you may change your mind at any time by writing to or emailing us at info@datasmithnetworks.com.

If your personal information changes, you may correct, update, amend, remove, or ask to have it removed by emailing us at info@datasmthnetworks.com.

We will not sell, distribute, or lease your personal information including mobile information to third parties unless we have your permission or are required by law to do so. We may use your personal information to send you promotional information about third parties which we think you may find interesting, if you inform us that you wish this to occur.
